

Providing professional and caring support to individuals and families throughout County Clare

Clarecare is a professional social enterprise with charitable status, providing a range of people centred social services to individuals and families in County Clare for over 50 years. Current services provided include Family Support, Elderly Care Services, Counselling and Bushypark Residential Addiction Treatment Centre. Clarecare's headquarters are based in Ennis with local offices in Bushypark, Shannon, Kilrush, Killaloe and Ennistymon. Further information is available on www.clarecare.ie www.bushypark.ie

Clarecare is supported by a partnership with TUSLA, Health Service Executive, other Government Departments, by charitable funding and by the Diocese of Killaloe.

Clarecare Family Support Services, funded by TUSLA, offer a range of interventions to vulnerable children, including children subject to Safety Plans and/or open case to TUSLA, Child & Family Agency. We work in partnership with service users and professional colleagues in the provision of individual and group-based supports.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Social Care Worker – Family Support Service

Part-time or full-time vacancies
On a permanent or fixed term contract basis
Location: Kilrush or Ennis, Co. Clare

DESCRIPTION OF ROLE:

Working from the Clarecare Family Support Service practice model, which is based on the Tusla National Practice Model - Meitheal, the role of the Social Care Worker is to:

- Deliver quality and innovative interventions to (a) children and youths in the community who may be the subject of child protection and welfare plans, and (b) children and young people identified as in need of support in relation to emotional and behaviour issues arising at home, school or in their community. The areas where children may need support include; social skills, developing positive relationships, self-esteem, and loss/separation issues.
- Carry out in-depth strengths and needs assessments in collaboration with children and parents and to formulate agreed outcome focussed interventions which are reviewed regularly.

- Undertake the responsibilities of a Lead Practitioner in cases involved in the Tusla Meitheal process.
- Actively participate in Tusla Child Protection and Welfare Conferences. This involves in-depth information gathering and report writing.
- Provide targeted populations of children with opportunities to participate in community activities and facilitated groups. The groups may include; personal development groups for children, parenting groups, summer activity programmes etc.
- To encourage child and youth participation in the design and quality of services which is fundamental to ensuring a child centred, rights-based approach when working with children and young people.
- To deliver support interventions to parents to enhance their parenting skills and relationships with their children.
- Work as part of a multi-disciplinary team to maximise and enhance outcomes for children. This will include regular monitoring and reviewing one's own work and engaging in formal supervision and continuous professional development.

SERVICE OBJECTIVES:

- To deliver a dedicated service to children in their local community.
- To improve outcomes for children through the delivery of interventions underpinned by the National Policy Framework for Children and Young People and Clarecare's specific overarching goals that all children are (1) safe and protected from harm and are (2) achieving their full potential in learning and development.
- To work in partnership with children and parents to identify their strengths and needs within their home and community environment and to work together to enhance resilience.
- To provide a safe and supportive space, which will give children and parents the opportunity to express and explore issues and concerns, which they may be experiencing.
- To encourage parents to build on their parenting skills and enhance relationships and communication with their children.
- To link and co-operate with other disciplines and agencies in order to promote a cohesive service for children.

JOB RELATIONS: The Social Care Worker will report directly to the allocated Family Support Services Team Leader and work as part of a multi-disciplinary Family Support Team. The Clarecare Family Support Services Manager has overall responsibility for Family Support Services. Reporting structures are subject to change.

DAYS/HOURS OF WORK: Various opportunities on a full-time or part-time permanent or fixed term contract basis. This position may involve evening or weekend work (as required) and you are required to be flexible regarding your work hours/work days.
